

Position: Middle School Algebra I Teacher (part-time)

St. Charles is currently seeking a Middle School Algebra I Teacher for the 2025-26 school year. The candidate will ideally have experience teaching math, demonstrate excellent organization and communication skills, and the ability to collaborate with school administration and fellow teachers in assessing and evaluating the readiness of middle school students who may qualify for the Algebra I course. The candidate should possess an appropriate bachelor's degree and WA state teaching certification (or ability to obtain prior to start of school). The ideal candidate will be a practicing Catholic and have an understanding of the Saxon Algebra I math course.

This position will be part-time (.2 FTE), beginning August 26, 2025, and may include attendance to some staff meetings and or teacher in-services.

Compensation & Benefits

Salary - $8,612 - $15,280 Employees will receive wages depending on hours. Offered wage is based on internal equity, market data, applicant's skills and relevant experience, degrees and certifications.

- Part-time positions receive sick leave and a 403(b) voluntary retirement plan.

To Apply

Interested candidates should send a letter of interest, resume, Diocesan application and 3 letters of recommendation (one from current pastor – required) to Jeff DeGon, Principal, at jdegon@stcharlesspokane.org

Position open until filled.

About the Employer

St. Charles is a parochial school with a mission of forming the whole child in a tradition of academic excellence, and a focus on providing a Catholic foundation and a strong community for our families. Our efforts to more deeply integrate everything we do at St. Charles into the faith, has led us through a process of renewal and transition into a Catholic Classical curriculum. This transition has shifted our school culture in countless ways and solidified our commitment to students and families by fostering and teaching gospel-based moral values, an appreciation of the classical western tradition, and fully transmitting the Catholic Faith.